

FAASTeam presents:

Emergencies-Risk Management

&quot;Emergencies: Risk Management and Decision Making When the Unexpected Happens.&quot; A review of 50 years of actual emergencies that I have experienced, and what I have learned from them.... from a Naval (Marine) aviator, a retired American Airlines MD-80 pilot in command, and a current Citation Captain. Milo Johnson

Directions: Driving:Once in downtown Redding, proceed to Placer Street, then west for about 10 blocks to the top of the hill..... now go two more blocks past the dog park and turn south on PLEASANT STREET, then one block and you will have arrived at 2955 South Street. Part anywhere along the fence line or the gravel area, then walk to the north end of the EAA building and enter. Flying: After landing, taxi to the NW corner of Benton, there you will observe open SUN SHADE HANGARS, park anywhere to the south of those hangars, then walk 300 feet to the north end of the EAA building, and enter there.
